★ A Look at the Last Meeting

★ The club welcomed two visiting Rotarians from Las Vegas Central.

★ Please support Fogo de Chao.

Our Christmas Party is Wednesday, December 21, at 7 pm. $45 per person includes everything but drinks. See Jennifer Huber or Sarah Gordon, as a head count needs to be given to Fogo as soon as possible.

★ Tee shirts are in production, but it's not too late to order yours. The shirts will be mandatory to participate in all club events.

★ Reserve now for Rotary International's Convention, and join the 48,000 people expected from all over the world. Be sure to check out the International Hospitality.

★ We will be participating in CenturyLink's annual event, Trunk or Treat, and need volunteers. The event is just a couple of weeks away on October 28.

★ The Bi-annual Chili Cook Off is a go. Richard and Jennifer are heading the event. There are many jobs to go around, and this will take a complete club effort to make it work.

★ The Member Moment spotlighted sculptor, painter and musician Jeffrey Alexander.

★ The Club Social and Fireside Chat was a success. Ron Snider and Tilly Jensi brought guests. Ron, who was at the Friday meeting, received a special pin from Nathan; Tilly will get hers at another time.

★ Our special guests were District Governor Lu de Sylva and his wife Hazel. Lu talked passionately about his love of Rotary and his many personal "Rotary Moments," sharing just a couple with us. He also discussed what our District is doing to make a difference: Rotoplast mission to Peru, sending Flying Doctors of Mercy to Mexico, and in California, working with the organization "1000 Smiles," bringing free dental care to those in need.

★ Finally, Lu talked about the District Convention coming up in May 2017, in Palm Springs.
